

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR COURT MANAGEMENT Early Career Professionals

Are you an Early Career Professional (ECP)? NACM has defined an ECP as someone who has either ten or fewer years of experience in a court or as a judicial branch professional, or is less than 40 years of age.

If this definition is you, I encourage you to get involved in the Early Career Professional opportunities offered at the 2012 NACM mid-year conference in Minneapolis.

ECP Sponsored Events at the 2012 Midyear Conference in Minneapolis:

- ECP Welcome Session Sunday, February 5 (see Agenda for time and location)
 - Meet board members
 - Meet other Early Career Professionals
 - Learn about what NACM has to offer
 - Mentoring Programs
 - Committee Involvement
 - Volunteer Opportunities
 - Scholarship Opportunities
 - Education
 - Social Events
- Toiletry collection for donation to a Minneapolis shelter. Please drop off unopened toiletries from your room in the designated bins next to the NACM registration desk.
- Networking events on Sunday, February 5 and Monday, February 6 (see Agenda for time and location).

Unable to join us at the Welcome Session?

No problem! You can find out more information about what NACM has to offer by visiting our website at www.nacmnet.org. We are currently working to create a more central location where you can easily locate membership opportunities. You can also contact me by email at vicky@nacmnet.org or by phone at 952-361-1424 for more information. Look for a future webinar on Membership Opportunities as well. NACM webinars are short, one hour informational sessions that are done via the internet and phone. Previous webinars have included topics such as Social Media and the Courts, Ethics, and Information Overload. Watch your email for upcoming webinars sponsored by the ECP committee.

I hope you will join us for the ECP welcome session at the 2012 NACM mid-year conference.

Sincerely,

Vicky Carlson
NACM ECP Committee Chair
