

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR COURT MANAGEMENT Early Career Professionals

Early Career Professionals

Early Career Professional (ECP) definition: “An Early Career Professional (ECP) shall be any NACM member who has either (a) ten or fewer years of experience in a court or as a judicial branch professional, or (b) is less than 40 years of age.”

Goals of ECP subcommittee

- Encourage ECPs to view judicial administration as a profession and career instead of a job;
- Retain ECP membership by encouraging ECP active participation in NACM;
- Provide ECPs with career development resources, which will include coordination with state associations as appropriate;
- Inform ECPs about the NACM mentoring program opportunities;
- Pursue expansion opportunities for growth within the ECP membership.

ECP Sponsored Events at the 2012 Midyear Conference in Minneapolis:

- ECP Welcome Session Sunday, February 5 (see Agenda for time and location).
- Toiletry collection for donation to a Minneapolis shelter. Please drop off unopened toiletries from your room in the designated bins next to the NACM registration desk.
- Networking events on Sunday, February 5 and Monday, February 6 (see Agenda for time and location).

ECP Sponsored Webinars:

Join the ECP committee for short one hour informational webinars. Previous webinars have covered various topics including: an outline of the resources available to ECP/NACM members; Social Media and the Courts; Summary of the 2010 Media Mini Guide; Summary of the 2009 Green Courts Mini Guide; Discussions surrounding the multi-generational workforce; and a discussion regarding why you can't work at work. Watch your email for upcoming webinars sponsored by the ECP committee.
